COUNTY COURT.

The Magistrates Hold a Busy Three Day's Session.

Revenue Commissioners Report That a Balance is Due the County From Ex-Trustee Henderson.

Chairman Looney convened County Court in regular quarterly session last Monday morning. There was a large attendance of the magistrates, and owing to the amount of business to be attended to, court remained in session Tuesday and Wednesday.

The solons were taken agreeably by surprise Monday by the presentation to them of a box of cigars by Dr. K. S. Howlett in appreciation of his re-election as poor-house commissioner.

Eugene Lochridge and John M. Hunter were appointed officers to wait on the court.

The poor-house committee made a report, which was accepted.

On motion of W. O. Gordon, Esq., the court passed a resolution endorsing E. S. Fowler, Esq., to the appointment of Judge of this district to succeed Judge Patterson.

Squire W. L. Harris tendered his resignation as Justice of the Peace of the 13th district.

The Revenue Commissioners reported that there had been $3,752.54 in county warrants issued during the quarter, of which $114.79 had been paid. The total amount of county warrants outstanding is about $43,500, a decrease from the amount reported at last court.

Amount of school fund in hand subject to check, about $10,691.91; amount of road fund in hand, $903.37. The commissioners also reported the following:

"We have discovered that the final settlement of your former Trustee, W. A. Henderson, is not correct, but, owing to the limited time for work by the commission, we did not have time to go over the books very thoroughly. We, however, consulted with Mr. Henderson, Chairman E. D. Looney and W. B. Greenlaw, County Attorney, and came to the conclusion that it was best to simply report that there is still a balance due the county by Mr. Henderson and ask that you appoint a special committee to investigate the books. We would report, in justice to Mr. Henderson, that he asks that the committee be appointed."

The report was received and adopted and the Chairman ordered to appoint said committee.

J. E. Truett, of the 1st district, and J. P. Choate of the 14th district, were elected notaries public.

It was ordered that Committee-man J. P. Harris, together with the committee from Marshall county, be instructed to have the north approach to the bridge across Duck river at Hardison's Mill repaired.

The district line between the 4th and 6th districts was so changed as to include the farm of L. S. Scribner in the 4th district.

The sum of $25 was appropriated to repair the bridge across Lytle's creek.

A sum not to exceed $200 was appropriated to repair the bridge across Rutherford creek near the old Arnold mill.

The following jurors were appointed for the November term of Circuit Court: 1st district, J. E. Truett; 2, E. L. Morrow; 3, W. C. Ratliff; Frank McCord; 4, J. L. White; 5, W. T. Galloway; 6, Will Foster; 7, Jeff Scott; 8, R. Phelps; 9, G. W. Erwin; 10, J. B. Chaffin; 11, G. C. Gordon; Henry Johnson; 12, G. W. Collier; G. M. McKennon, Jr.; 13, John Nelson; 14, W. A. Lindsay; G. N. Pickard; 15, T. J. Webster; 16, Thos. L. Baird; 17, T. N. Lunn; 18, Lem Hicks; 19, David Goad; 20, T. G. Hughes; 21, A. S. Carr; 22, Jim Marshall; 23, F. M. Fitzgerald; 24, W. B. Blair; 25, Gilbert Hunter; W. R. Atkinson; 26, Wm. Blaylock; J. T. Moore.

The committee appointed to look into the matter of the iron bridge over Duck river at Columbia, made a report to the effect that Mr. Rainey, or the owner of the Maury Central Turnpike, pay Maury County for the said new bridge the sum of $5,000, and that in case of refusal of this proposition, steps should be taken to have the charter of the road forfeited. The Court rejected this report, and the matter remains in statu quo, except that Chairman Looney and Attorney Greenlaw were ordered to negotiate with Mr. Rainey and see if the bridge could be rented to him.

DEATH'S HARVEST. Mrs. Annie Johnson Folsom, wife of Mr. W. W. Folsom, died at her home in Hope, Ark., September 22. Mr. Folsom was formerly a resident of this city, but since 1875 has been living in Arkansas and is now editor of the Hope Gazette. He has many old friends and acquaintances here who will regret to hear of his sad misfortune.

S. B. Watkins, Jr., died of typhoid fever at the home of his parents in the Zion neighborhood last Saturday, Oct. 2, at the age of 20 years. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. P. Haws in Zion church, Sunday, and the interment took place in Zion church-yard. Deceased was an upright, highly respected young man, and to his parents and sisters, a large number of friends offer their tender sympathies in this sad hour.

Mrs. E. J. Gary died Tuesday, October 5, at the home of her son, Mr. Ben S. Gary, near Carter's Creek, and the funeral took place Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at Alexander Church. Deceased was 69 years of age, and during her long pilgrimage on earth lived a true Christian and devoted follower of her Master, and has now gone to reap the rewards of a life well spent.

After a short illness, Dr. H. Beaden died last Saturday, Oct. 2, at his home at Dark's Mill, in the 64th year of his age. The funeral services were conducted at St. John's Episcopal Church at Ashwood, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by Rev. A. C. Killheffer, and the interment took place in the cemetery at that place. Dr. Beaden was an experienced and capable physician and a man of true merit and many principles. He leaves a wife, three daughters and two sons, who have the sympathy of a large number of sorrowing friends.

Another Blow Up. Columbia is again in darkness. Since the accident at the power-house recently, the Electric Light Company has been making electricity at the City Grain & Feed Company's mill near the depot, and last Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock the cylinder head on this engine blew out. The engine at the power-house is being repaired, and the company thinks they will be able to give light again to-night.

A BARREL OF WHISKY. A drayman rolled forth from his cart in the street. A red-headed barrel well bound and complete; And on it red letters, like forked tongues of flame, Emblazoned the grade, number, quality, fame. Of this world renowned whisky from somebody's still, Who arrested the grain on the way to the mill.

So there stood the barrel, delivered; but I could see that a shadow was hovering nigh— A sulphurous shadow, that grew, as I gazed, To the form of Mephisto. Though sorely amazed, I ventured to question this imp of the realm.

Where Vice is the pilot, with Crime at the helm, And asked him politely his mission to name. And if he was licensed to retail the same cautious barrel of whisky which he was fondly surveying with demonic glee. "O, I never handle the stuff," he replied; "My partners mortal are trusty and tried; Mayhap, peradventure, you might wish to look At the invoice complete; I will read from this book. You will find that this barrel contains something more Than forty-two gallons of whisky galore."

And ere I could slip but another word in, He checked it off gayly—his cargo of sin: "A barrel of headaches, of heartaches, of woes;

A barrel of curses, a barrel of blows; A barrel of tears from a world-weary wife; A barrel of sorrow, a barrel of strife;

A barrel of all-unavailing regret; A barrel of cares, and a barrel of debt; A barrel of crime, and a barrel of pain; A barrel of hopes, ever blasted and vain;

A barrel of falsehood, a barrel of cries That fall from the maniac's lips as he dies; A barrel of poison (of this nearly full); A barrel of poverty, ruin, and blight;

A barrel of terrors that grow with the night; A barrel of hunger, a barrel of groans; A barrel of orphan's most pitiful moans; A barrel of serpents that hiss as they pass

From the bead on the liquor that glows in the glass! My treasure, I bid thee farewell; Sow ye the foul seed; I will reap it in hell!" —Selected.

SELLING LIQUORS.

The Oath Required to Obtain License, and the Penalty Attached.

The HERALD is requested to copy the following sections from the Code of Tennessee; and the suggestion is made that if Reform really means reform, these sections should be incorporated in the city laws, and rigidly enforced. To-wit:

Milliken & Vertess' Code, Section 860: The license may be granted to a person competent to take the same, upon the following conditions:

1. That the applicant deliver to the clerk a sworn statement of the value of the liquors about to be offered for sale at the establishment for which he demands a license.

2. That he make and deliver to the clerk a joint and several bond of himself and one good surety at least, in the penalty of five hundred dollars, payable to the State, conditioned to keep a peaceful and orderly house, and in all things to comply with the provisions of this law.

3. That he, and, in case of a partnership, that all the members thereof, take and subscribe the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will not, under the license which I am about to obtain, knowingly permit or connive at any gaming for money, or any other valuable consideration, in the house in which I may retail spirits or in any other place of which I may have control, either directly or indirectly; and if any person should game or bet to my knowledge (and I will exercise due diligence to know) I will give information thereof to the grand jury of my county at the next term of the court: So help me, God."

Section 5668: Any person who, after having taken out a license to retail spirituous or vinous liquors, violates the oath required previous to the issuance of his license, is guilty of perjury.

Section 5670: The provisions of this article are to be construed liberally, so as to prevent evasions and subterfuges, and to effectuate the objects had in view.
